Activity

Habit Charades

WHAT YOU NEED:

Index cards (or ¼ sheets of paper),
writing utensil

WHAT YOU DO:

Say, "Let's play a game. There are four Ask your child about what it means to have a habit. Then, ask them what some good habits are (brushing your teeth, eating healthy, praying at bedtime). Write each habit you come up with on a card.

Do the same with bad habits (biting
your nails, talking with your mouth full, interrupting, running indoors, standing on couches or chairs). Write each of those habits on a card.

When you've got around 10 cards total, shuffle them together. Then play charades! Involve everyone at home, if possible. Take turns drawing a card from the pile and silently acting out each habit while everyone else guesses what it is.

Talk About the Bible Story

What happened during the first Passover? (God saved His people from the last plague in Egypt by passing over the houses of the people who had lamb's blood painted on their doorframes.)

Why did people continue to celebrate Passover? (to remember that God rescued them from slavery)

What are some of the things that were part of the Passover celebration? (People ate a meal with lamb and flat bread.)

Who celebrates communion, or the Lord's Supper? (people who follow Jesus)

A good follow-up question is: What makes someone a Jesus-follower? (They believe that Jesus is their Savior and choose to follow Him.)

Why do followers of Jesus celebrate communion, or the Lord's Supper? (to remember that Jesus rescued us by dying on a cross for our sins)

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"Dear God, when You sent us Jesus, You gave us the one thing we can always be grateful for every day. Even on our worst days, we can be thankful because we know You are watching over us and Your plans are always good. Help us to remember what You've done for us, and to thank You often. In Jesus' name, amen."

grateful?

Activity

Paper Plate Circle

WHAT YOU NEED:

Six or more paper plates (or sheets of paper), and something to write with

WHAT YOU DO:

On one side of each paper plate, write down the name of a person who lives in your home. If you need to add names to get to six, add the names of the people your family is closest to. (You can have more than six.)

Then, using the paper plates, form a circle on the floor. The names should be face down on the floor.

Play a game with your child. Tell them to start at one paper plate, then move left or right around the circle, depending on their responses to the following statements.

- Move one plate to the left if you said thank you to someone today.
- Move one plate to the right if you can remember what you were given for your birthday last year.
- Move two plates to the right if you did something for someone today and they thanked you for it.
- Move one plate to the right if you can think of something you're grateful for right now.
- Move two plates to the right if you sometimes forget to say thanks.
- Move one plate to the left if you thanked God the last time you ate a meal.

Now say, "Pick up the paper plate and read the name on the back. In the next 24 hours, think of one thing that person has done for you that you're grateful for, and tell them thank you. You can tell them to their face, you can write them a note, or you can call or text them."

If you have time, repeat the process by starting on a different plate for the second round.

Follow up with your child tomorrow and ask if they completed their "thank you challenge."
